

As the senior vice president of Stantec's Procurement & Real Estate group, Kenna Houncaren oversees all aspects of strategic sourcing and vendor management for the company. This includes direct responsibility for the management and strategic procurement of travel, corporate cards, offices leases and supplies, mobile phones, print, and fleet. Kenna is responsible for ensuring that Stantec manages its supply chain to ensure we provide sustainable and efficient procurement.

With over 15 years of experience in the design and professional services industries, Kenna has acted as both a practitioner and leader domestically and internationally. She holds a Bachelor of Laws from Dalhousie University and a Bachelor of Commerce, specializing in finance, from the University of Alberta, School of Business. Kenna is active in local community and charitable organizations—most notably the Edmonton Public Library where she serves as vice chair of the board of trustees.
